Over View

The 2019 Legislative Assembly Election isn't a contest between parties & ideologies, rather it's between Leaders, Their Legacies & Their Political Futures. In-spite of how many seats Janasena Party(JSP) is going to win, it will be a true winner with double digit vote share & their performance in the assembly as a responsible party will help them play vital role in 2024 with clear people's verdict.

The huge turnout of voters isn't just Anti-incumbency, but also many 1st time voters exercising their right to fulfill fundamental Duty as Citizen of India & take part in the process of building the nation. The anti-incumbency hasn't been consolidated to a single party or a group, rather it got distributed between YSRCP, JSP, BJP, INC, etc. Spaced Out, YSR Congress party's inability to work together on an alliance formula with other parties have given an edge to Telugudesam party.

Social welfare schemes introduced by ruling party TDP during the last phase of the current tenure has high impact on women & middle age group voters along with high trust on the leadership of CBN rather than other Leaders in contention for CM post. CBN's portrayal as visionary leader with tiresome work schedules, experience, contacts and energy levels were showcased as his commitment & compassion to build the New Age & Global Competent Andhra Pradesh. TDP's Election marketing & branding material were able to send loud & clear message to common man about the welfare schemes introduced & revived the memories of the same.

The manifesto's of all parties largely concentrated on Social Welfare schemes which are a burden to state treasury. But CBN being current CM had an advantage of building trust among the civilians in-spite of Financial & Political Crunch, he will be able to complete Polavaram & Core Amaravati Capital Region during 2019-24 tenure along with continuing current social welfare schemes.

The current elections are going to erase the caste & religion equations in our state, as neither a religion nor a region or a caste is loyal to any single party. The voters of AP aren't just literates, but they are political intellectual's hereafter. Hence if any party believes they have a loyal vote Bank of a cast or a religion or a region is their political backyard then they have to mature themselves as politicians.

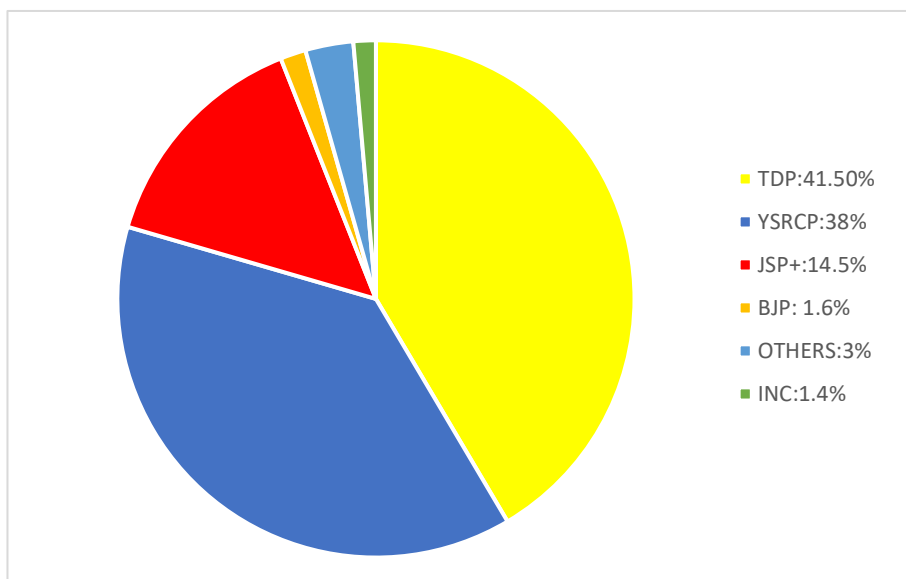

These views are purely our personal after consolidating various inputs from ground-level. They may not be accurate but our efforts to predict exit polls are genuine & aren't biased for any party or leader.
